

new economy

Manchester's Commission for the New Economy provides leadership, vision and direction to the city region, to grow its economy, broaden and improve its skills base and increase prosperity for all of those who live or work in Greater Manchester.

The Commission for the New Economy has been established to coordinate strategically work in the field of economic development, employment and skills. The Commission for the New Economy is one of seven commissions created as part of the new governance arrangements for Greater Manchester.